SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Saturdays: after the 9.30am Mass and from 5.30. – 5.45pm.

READERS AND SPECIAL MINISTERS

Team 1 will be on duty on the 1st. Sunday in August, and Teams 2, 3, and 4 follow on the respective Sundays; please note that as there are five Sundays in August it will be the responsibility of Team 3 to be on duty that weekend.

If you are unable to fulfil a duty, please telephone for a replacement.

Will readers in Team 3 also note that the weekend of the 14th./15th. August is the Solemnity of the Assumption which replaces Sunday XX of the Year and the readings are thus of the solemnity (including a Vigil Mass!)

COLLECTIONS

The collection last Sunday amounted to £770.09 and, including standing orders of £215.73, the total amounted to £985.82. Thank you.

The collection for the Day of Prayer for Life amounted to £183.45.

The collections for August will be announced in the first newsletter for September.

PAPAL VISIT: 18/19 SEPTEMBER

The list of those people who wish to travel to Birmingham on 19th. Sep. has been sent to the Parish Secretary of St. Elphege's, Wallington (from which two coaches are travelling, with two more from St. Cecilia's, North Cheam): it is presumed that the Birmingham visit will be organised from there. The list of those who wish to attend the Vigil in Hyde Park on 18th. Sep. will be given to Sharon Quezada and she may be in contact accordingly. Please note that the central 'organisation' of this event has been noted for its shambolic nature, and it must be stressed that not only may events not turn out as planned but also that the fault does not extend to any of the local parish and deanery organisers. In short, if things go awry, please blame those at the top, not those organising at ground level!

FR. BRUNO TOUPAN

We welcome Fr. Bruno to the parish once again for the month of August. He is familiar with the parish of course, but will those who read, minister, and volunteer in any way, please ensure that duties are fulfilled, or replacements are found if you cannot fulfil a duty. He is here to celebrate Mass, and undertake some visiting, but he will not be dealing with any enquiries about baptisms and weddings, school forms or anything else that requires the Parish Priest's signature, so please do not bother him.

All enquiries must wait until Aug 31st. when Fr. Julian returns to duty.
